

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:
Shawn McCreery
smccreery@5thgenco.com
616-808-1860

Imperial Graphics Named One of the 'Best and Brightest Companies to Work For' in the U.S.

Grand Rapids, Michigan, Nov. 11, 2024 – Imperial Graphics, through its parent company 5THGEN, has been honored by the National Association for Business Resources (NABR) as one of the Best and Brightest Companies to Work for in the United States. This award recognizes companies with the most innovative business acumen and human resources practices. Awards are presented annually in more than 12 markets, including Atlanta, Dallas/Fort Worth, Denver, Detroit, Houston, Miami, New York, Northern California, and West Michigan, as well as nationally. Nationalbiz.org

“Our company culture is a consistent focus,” Scott Scheidel, vice president of operations at Imperial Graphics, said. “We are dedicated to exceeding the expectations of our valued customers, as well as ensuring a supportive environment for all our team members.”

Brandon Bissell, president of 5THGEN, said, “We are honored to receive this recognition. The concept of our company’s ‘Why’ embodies our core purpose, our guiding beliefs, and the fundamental reason for our existence. Our mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of others, including our team members, who make what we do possible.”

###

About Imperial Graphics

Imperial Graphics, based in Grand Rapids, Michigan, specializes in labeling, commercial print, and packaging, always with a focus on adding meaningful value for a diverse client base throughout the Midwest. Imperial Graphics employs decades of operational expertise, lean strategies, and innovative ways to drive efficiency to its customers. Imperial Graphics is owned by 5THGEN, a closely held investment group with a family history of five generations in business. The website address is MoreThanPrint.com.